The figure displays three calendar grids for the months of July, August, and September 2023. Each grid shows the days of the month, with dates 1 through 31. The days are color-coded based on a legend at the bottom of each grid. The legend indicates that 'D' (Dark) represents a specific category, and 'S' (Light) represents another. The colors used are dark blue for 'D' and light blue for 'S'.
